*For yesterday is but a Dream
And To-Morrow is only a Vision
But To-Day, well lived,
Makes every Yesterday
A dream of Happiness,
And every To-Morrow
a Vision of Hope.*

DEDICATION

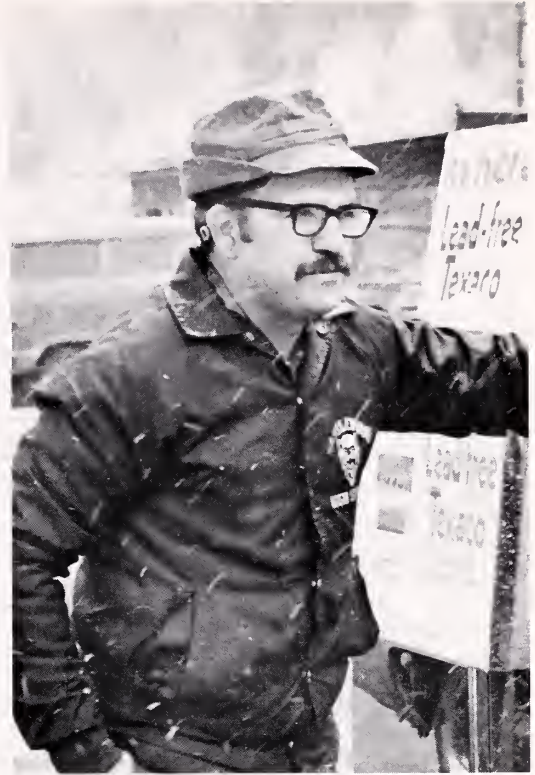

MR. ALLEN WELLS

A former graduate of J. J. Kelly High School and E. T. S. U., Mr. Wells has taught here at CHS for six years. Since his arrival in 1968, Mr. Wells has become a leader among the faculty and the students. His sense of humor is appreciated by everyone, and has won the admiration of all the students at CHS. Mr. Wells has taught us that learning can be an enjoyable as well as an educational experience. In his good-natured atmosphere, we have found ourselves wanting to learn rather than having to learn.

A VERSATILE MAN

Mr. Milton and Mr. Wells supervise the cafeteria.

Besides working hard at school, Mr. Wells is also part-owner of a local service station.

Danny Minahan and Mr. Wells have a friendly conversation during lunch.

Not only is Mr. Wells a teacher and breadwinner, he is also a family man. Shown here with his daughter, Pamela; his wife, Irene; his daughter, Becky; and the latest addition to the Wells family, David Allen.

SCHOOL BEGINS

(Above) The first day of school causes hectic rush to class after long summer vacations.

Seniors display new rings.

Can you believe it? For once, they are trying to get their sin the picture instead of their faces.

Rev. B. S. Pitsinger was guest speaker at the party.

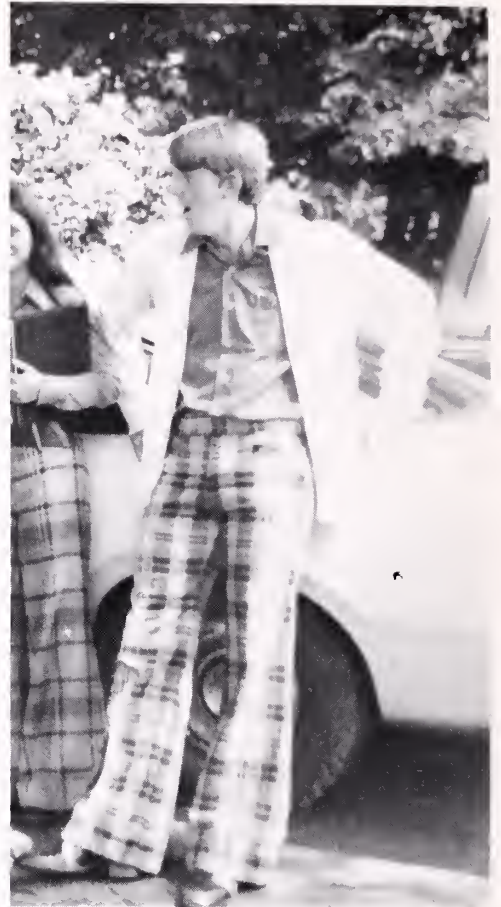

Seniors enjoy the excellent refreshments provided for us by the Refreshment Committee.

SENIORS ENJOY AD DAY

Kathy Duncan and Sanna Jo Collins enjoy eating out on Ad Day.

Frank Davis relaxes during a busy day.

Joy Chafin appears impatient as she waits for her friends to finish lunch.

SPIRIT WEEK BUILDS TENSION

Kay McReynolds and Nora Turner dress Donna Campbell to ride on one of the floats.

Their faces illuminated by the bonfire, build enthusiasm for the upcoming game.

At the pep rally, students take a break from cheering to lend an ear to Mr. Tarwater.

Coach Blake Whitenack is jubilant after a Blue Devil victory.

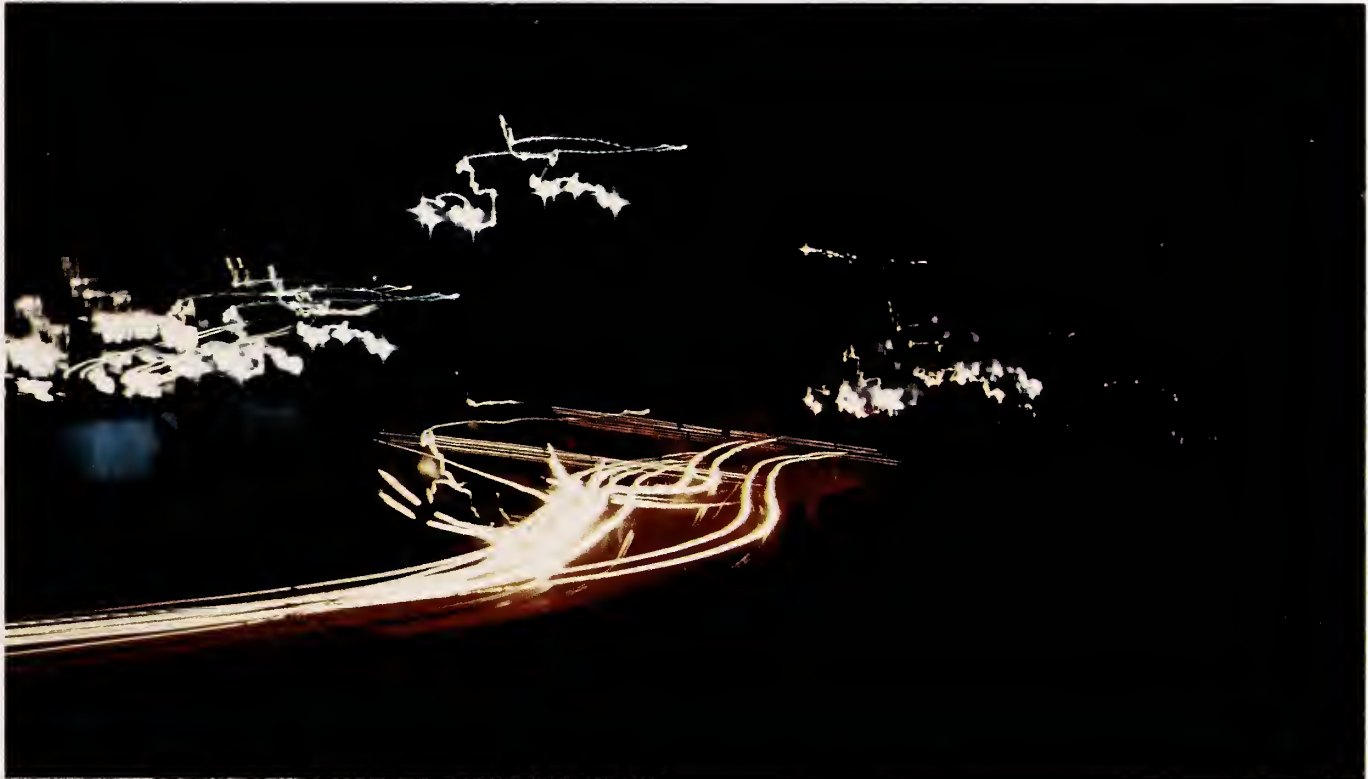

Even though Homecoming festivities were marred by rainy weather, a good crowd turned out for the game.

After finishing with an undefeated district worksheet, the football teams district championship was commemorated with a cake.

Football coaches later demolished the cake.

Traffic lights after the ball game weave an interesting pattern due to the time-lapse photography of Mike Davis. How many of you recognize the intersection at Shuler Milton's store?

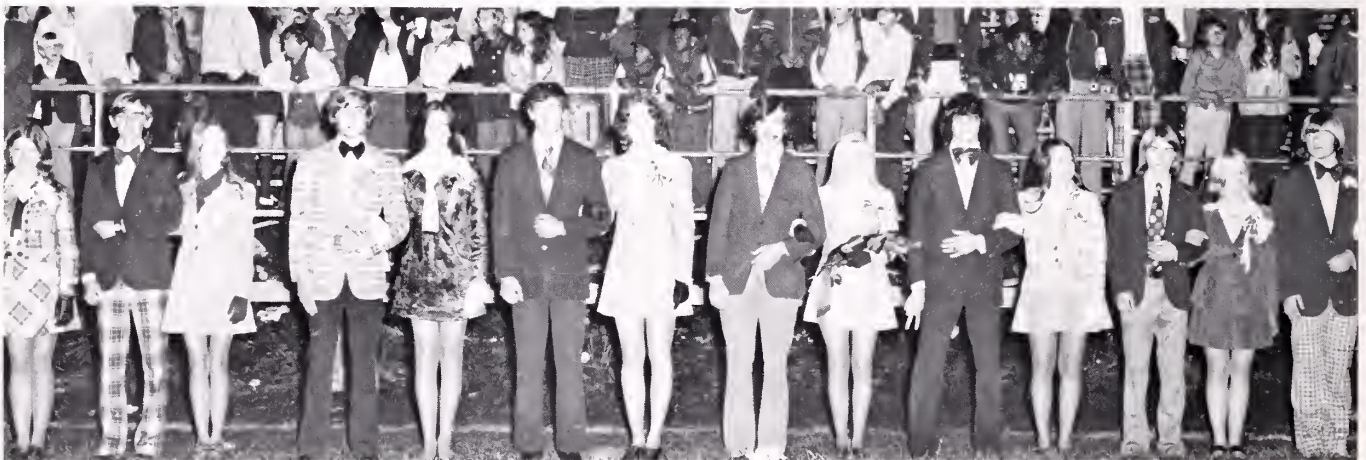

BRENDA SADDLER IS CHOSEN

Mr. Tarwater congratulates Brenda Saddler.

QUEEN FOR HOMECOMING

Following the game, a dance was held in the gym. Music was provided by a local group, SUN-EYE. From the look of this picture, it seems everyone had a good time.

Doc Adams gains ground against St. Paul.

The game as it looked from the bleachers. By the way, The Blue Devils went on to win 44-0.

JUNIORS WIN FIRST PLACE

The Juniors float captured first place.

The Foreign Language Clubs float won second place.

The Senior Class float won third place.

Teddy Patrick quenches his thirst after the game. We wonder what is in the jug, though.

MOCK ELECTION IS HELD

Debbie Helbert, Yvonne Puckett, Janice Meade, Debbie Puckett and Susan Kilbourn register and vote in the Mock Election.

ORGANIZED AND SPONSORED BY JEFF SWORD

The Mock Election was held mainly due to the influence of Mr. Jeff Sword. Without his assistance it would not have been possible. The Candidates in the election were Charles Horne and Bill Wampler. Although Charles Horne won in the Mock Election, he was defeated by the incumbent Wampler in the real election.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT

Another experience for Desi in our community is riding a horse for the first time.

For the first time in Russell County an exchange student has come here to attend school. Her name is Desiree Mansur. She is shown above with Mrs. Dolly Wallace with whom she is staying. She will be here for a period of six months, from January to June. Desi comes to us from Sao Paulo, Brazil. She is a Senior at her school in Sao Paulo and will finish there in December. Her father is a Doctor of Engineering and her mother teaches Biology at the University of Sao Paulo. After graduation Desi plans to attend the University and work toward a degree in Architecture.

COMES TO CASTLEWOOD

"DESI"

Even though she understands little English, her attentiveness in class enables her to understand much of what goes on.

Here, Desi plays pinball with some of her friends. America has offered many novelties and experiences to Desi.

ADMINISTRATION & FACULTY

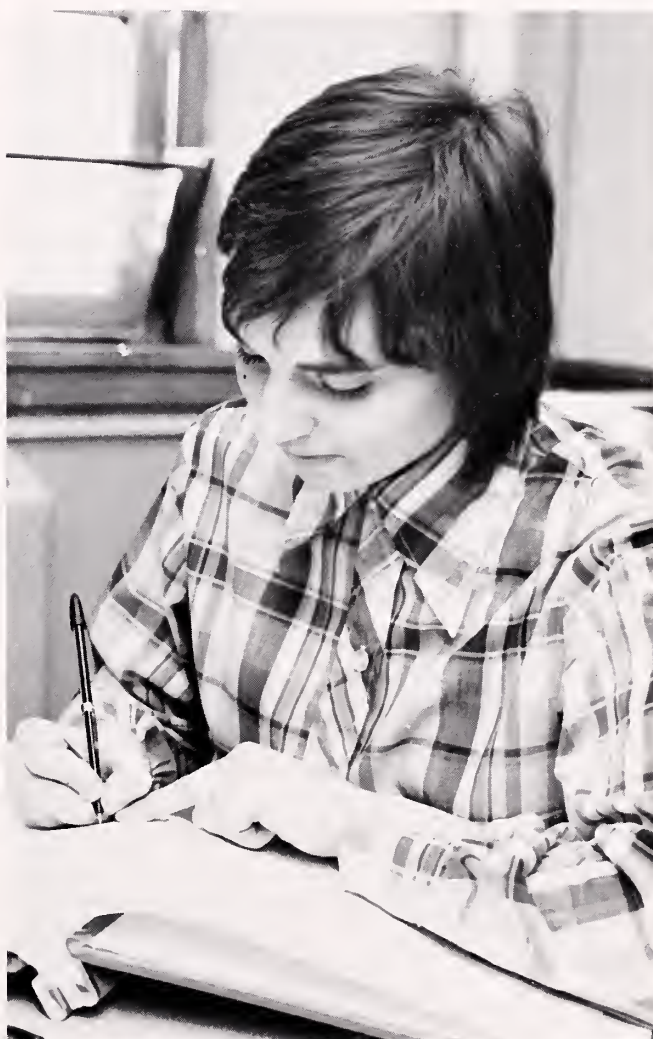

(Right) Mr. John Tarwater's years of experience coupled with his deep love and concern for today's youth result in able leadership at Castlewood High School.

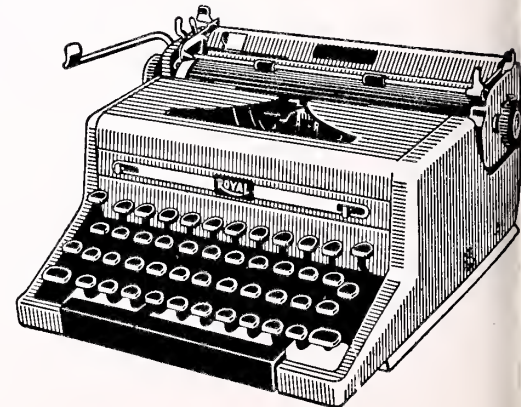

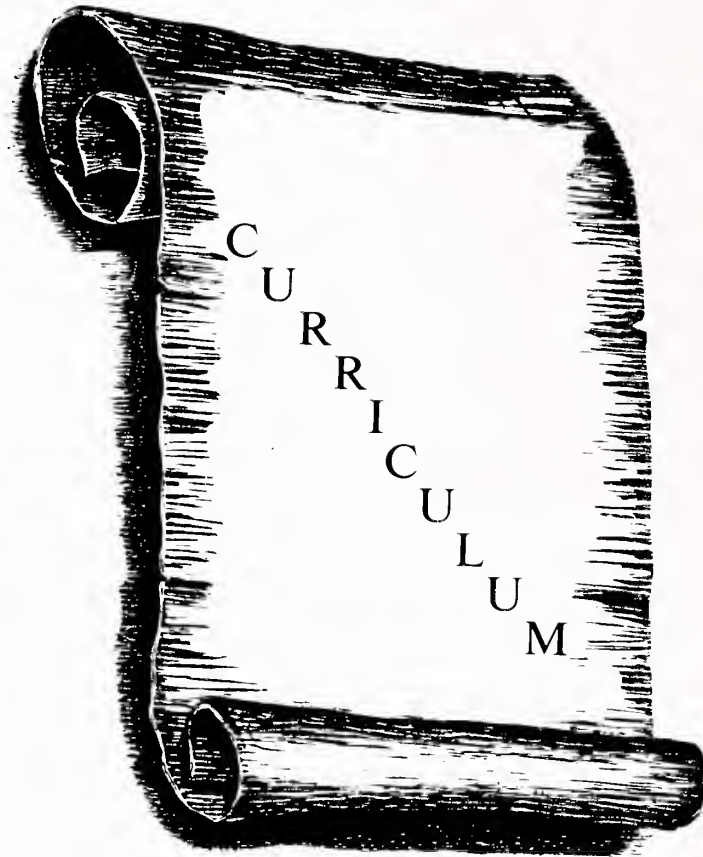

(Left) Mr. Eugene Campbell, our assistant principal is continually busy assisting teachers in their needs and in listening to the needs of the students.

(Left) Mrs. Nilah Gray is our very capable school secretary. In addition to handling the office reports, Mrs. Gray graciously works with students and members of the faculty.

(Right) Our school treasurer, Mrs. Deanna Talbert, is a very busy person. Mrs. Talbert is most efficient in her duties and always has a friendly smile.

(Left) Important in our school curriculum is language other than our native tongue. Mrs. Reba Banner expends her knowledge of the French language and culture to the students in an interesting and profitable manner. She co-sponsors the Foreign Language Club.

(Right) Miss Sue Meredith is our new Spanish teacher. Spanish was added to our curriculum last year and Miss Meredith has worked diligently to improve the existing program. She is co-sponsor of the Foreign Language Club and a cheerleader sponsor.

The English department of CHS is ever striving to improve communications among individuals. Castlewood High English teachers endeavor to stress the importance of communication to our youth so they can better function in today's growing world.

(Above) Mrs. Connie Clay is devoted to her subject area and to working with students. She teaches Sophomore English and assists in Guidance Department.

(Above) Her smile and kind words are fundamental traits of Miss Lucille Kelly. She instructs English in grades 9 and 11, and sponsors the Junior Beta Club.

(Above) Our eighth grade English program is ably handled by the careful instruction of Mrs. Patricia Sword.

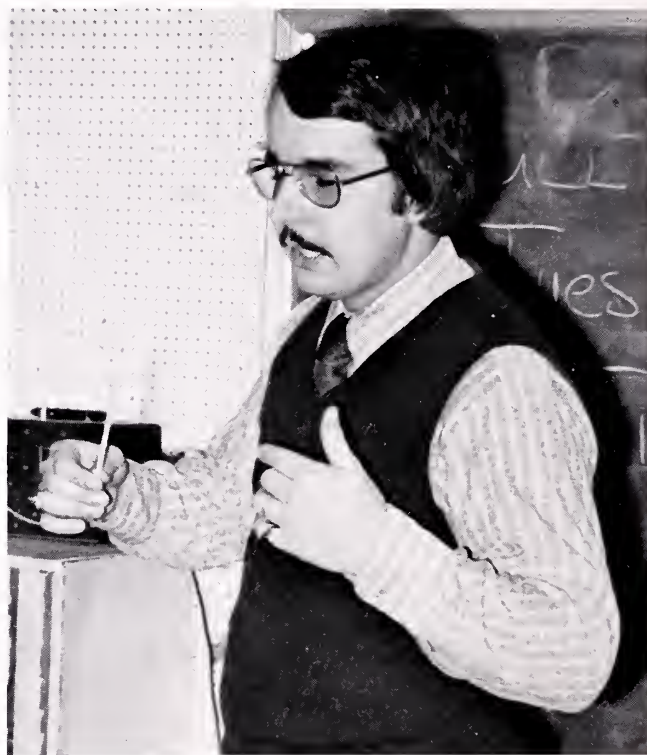

(Above) A conscientious individual, Mrs. Dolly Wallace teaches Freshman and Sophomore English. She is also advisor of The Sentinel and sponsors the Senior Beta Club.

Mrs. Jeroleen Elam is the master mind of the CHS library. Her patience and concern add to the students enjoyment of reading.

Our capable library assistant, Mrs. Peggy Mosier, is always ready to give aid to students and faculty in their search for resource materials.

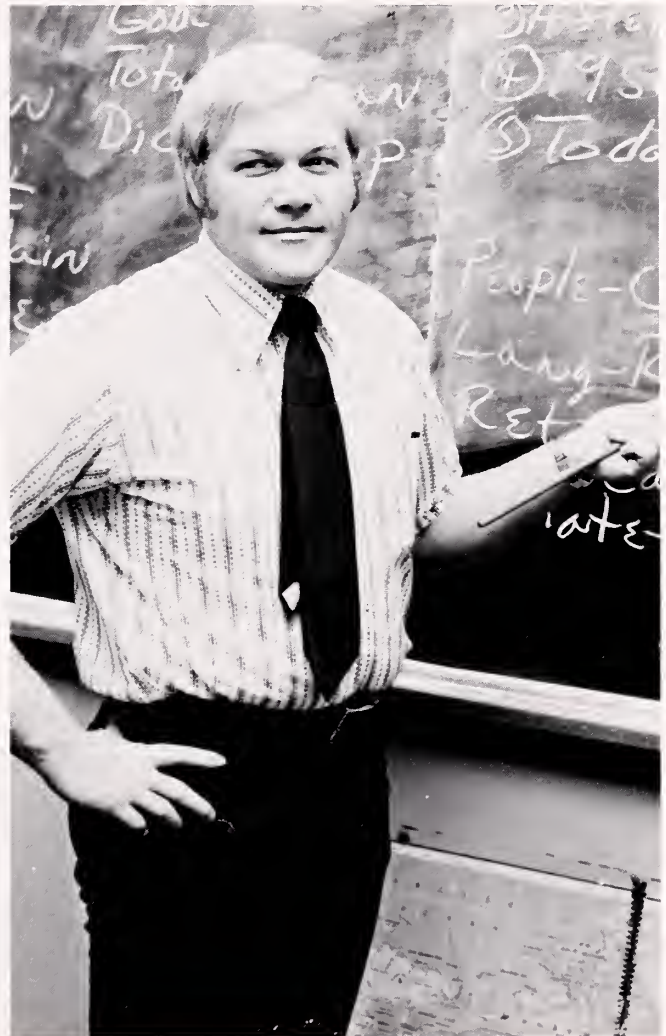

The musical pride of Castlewood High is under the direction of Mr. Ron Hines. Mr. Hines is always busy with band activities, whether they be fund raising or "note raising."

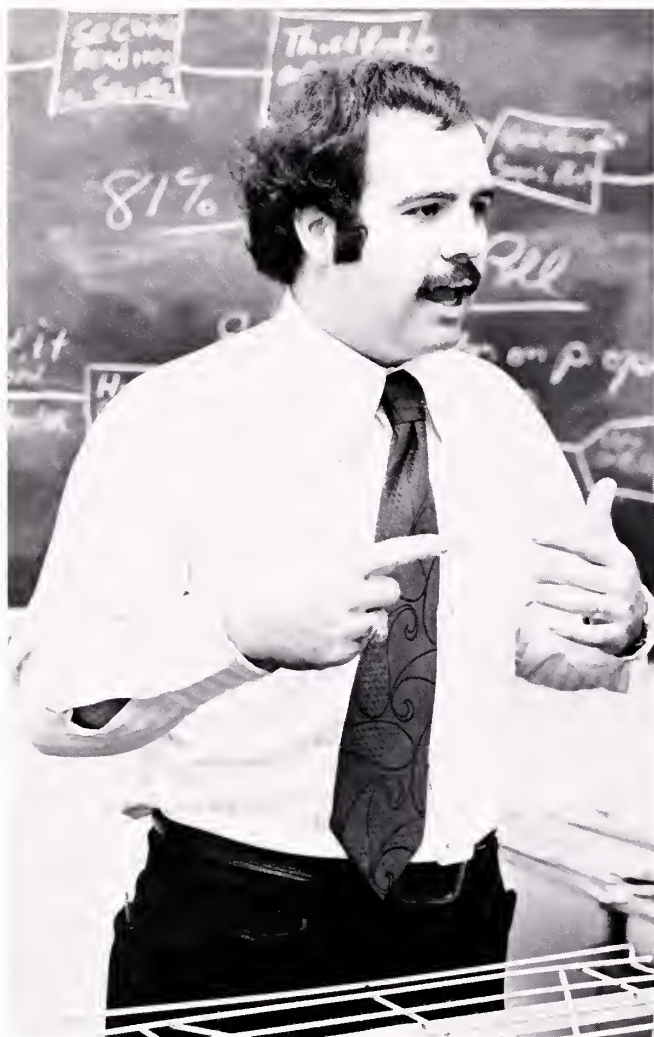

Young People learn to communicate in various areas of study. Another very important area is the Social Studies Department.

(Left) Mr. Dudley McCoy is a sincere believer in knowing the history and function of one's nation. He is also instructor of Science.

(Right) Geography and history are intertwined in our nation's growth. Mr. Dennis Hensdill is concerned that his students know their history and geographical background.

(Right) Mr. Allen Wells is always eager to ask and answer questions of past history and current events.

Mr. Paul Grizzle

An important area of life is being able to work with one's hands. Through the able instruction and devotion to their work, Mr. Paul Grizzle and Mr. Roger Sluss prepare boys for a future of practicality.

The Natural Resource Development class has added much to our Agricultural learning area.

Mr. Roger Sluss

Skillful craftsmanship is most important.

(Right) The smiling face of Mrs. Frances Banner has been seen at CHS for several years. Her dedication in training youth to provide for themselves is exceptional.

(Left)) Mrs. Barbara Fuller has added joy to our faculty and the Home Economics department. Mrs. Fuller proves her fine talents and knowledge each day at CHS.

(Left) Mrs. Mary Tardy is a conscientious instructor in the Business Education Department. In her concern for staff and students, Mrs. Tardy prepares her students in practical work through assistance to various faculty members.

One who exemplifies efficiency, Mrs. Linda Harris demonstrates to her students the importance of this trait. She spearheads the FBLA Club and ably works with those competing for awards in the commercial training area.

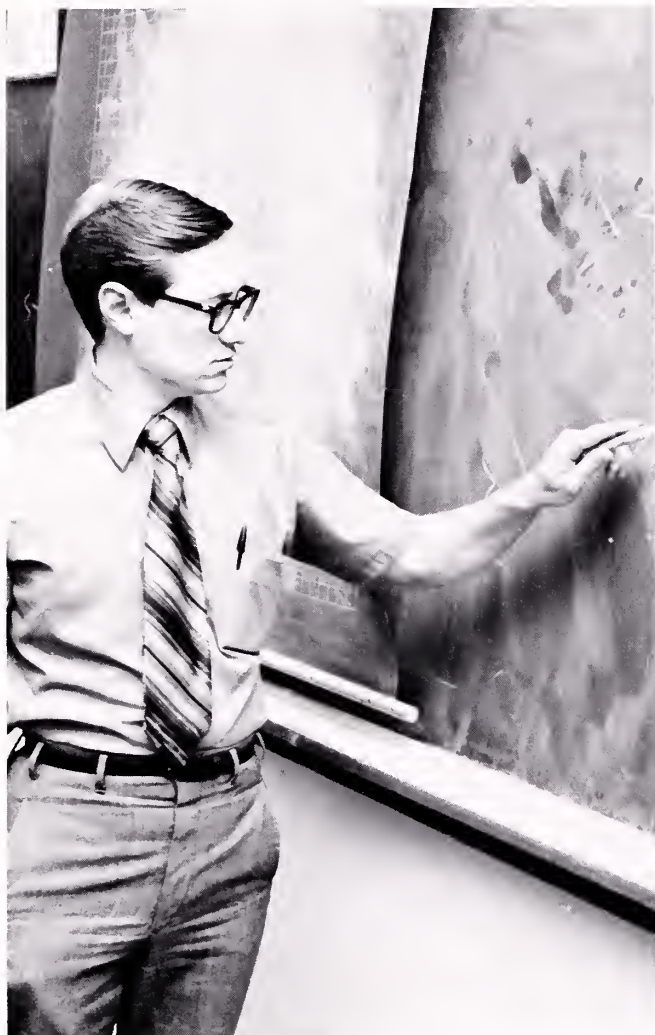

A hard worker and one who is interested in his students' future, Mr. W. C. Robinson instructs students in the rudiments of our practical business world. He is also sponsor of the Drama Club.

(Left) Guidance has been interpreted in many ways. Mr. John Sabo ably listens to the students of Castlewood High and offers suggestions in determining courses of study and life ambitions.

(Right) Mr. Merritt Mann exemplifies his interest in our students by advising them to develop good study habits and to work diligently.

The Humanities and Social Studies areas are evenly balanced with fact and theory from the Mathematics and Science areas.

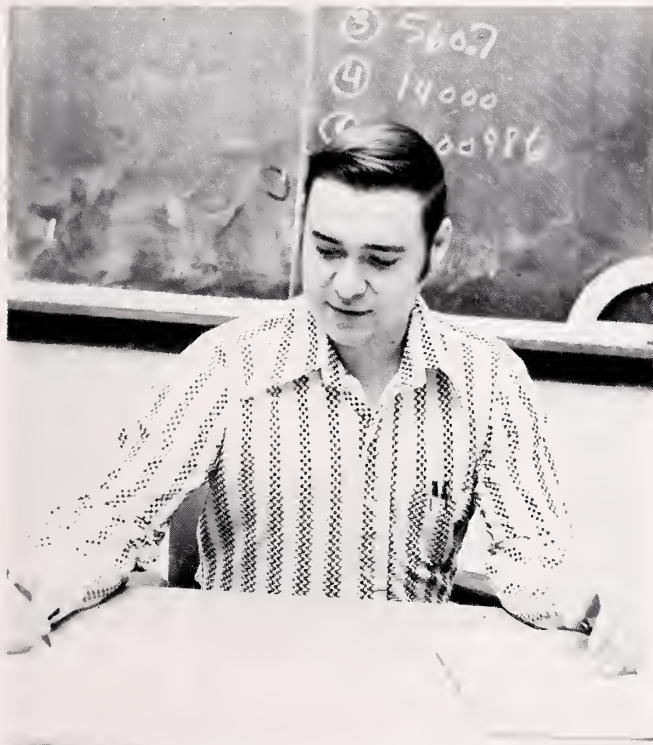

(Left) Mr. Herman Hodges illustrates his analytical mind as he guides his students in the concepts of algebra, trigonometry, analysis and physics.

(Right) Mr. Blake Whitenack is a very jovial and involved instructor in his algebra and geometry classes. He is also involved in coaching football and baseball.

Completing our mathematics department is Mr. Larry Shortt. He believes that students must be able to think clearly through each problem and he instructs with this thought in mind.

Mr. Buddy Poole spends concentrates time and effort instructing eighth graders in the importance of science. Mr. Poole provides a setting whereby many exhibits and experiments are produced by his students. He is sponsor of the Science Club and coaches basketball. In his "spare time" Coach Poole directs the athletic activities at CHS.

(Right) Miss Betsy Randall is a pleasant new face at CHS and in the Chemistry classroom. Miss Randall has been very busy this year promoting chemistry experiments and sponsoring the Cheerleaders.

A very important faculty member is one who devotes her time and talents to her special education classes. Miss Virginia Gruet is admired and loved by all whom she instructs.

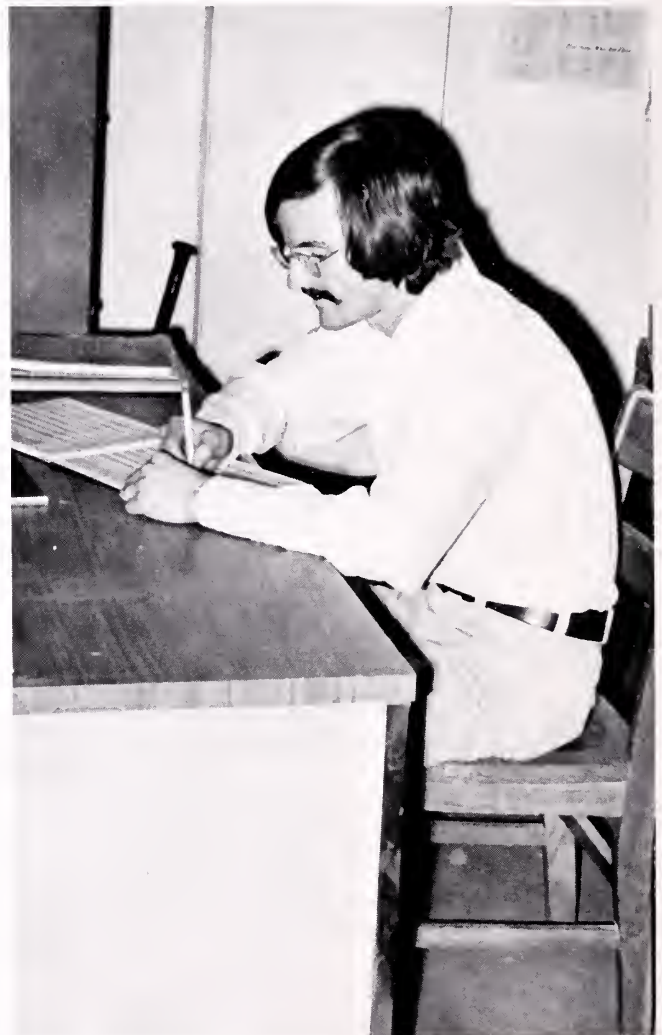

Miss Gruet assists these students Elizabeth Hawks, Craig Hale, and Richard Williams.

Good health and physical fitness are important if our youth are to expand their minds in the learning processes. This fact is evident in the minds and techniques of our able Physical Education Department.

(Left) Mr. Verner Auville is a busy man always, especially in the late summer and autumn as he leads our boys in the fundamentals of football and good sportsmanship.

(Right) Mr. Chad Robinson displays his cheerful attitude as he endeavors to build stamina of mind and body in his students

(Right) A welcome to Mr. David Cozzolino, also. Mr. Cozzolino is proving his ability this year as an excellent coach and capable instructor in our physical education area.

Another important area is the Dietarian and Custodians.

(Left to Right) Miss Bessie Skeens, Miss Carolyn Skeens, Mrs. Mildred Holbrook, Mrs. Estelle Herndon, and Mrs. Josephine Bratton.

Castletonian 1951

Castlewood High School's Silver Anniversary

The youth of yesterday are the adults of today by the process of time. Time produces from the youth of today the adults of tomorrow.

The 1975 Castletonian Staff presents a minute cross section of faces which span the twenty-five year existence of our Alma Mater, Castlewood High School.

NEW TEMPLE HILL HIGH SCHOOL

Hail Alma Mater, so dear
To you a rah and a cheer.
We trod thy sacred halls
To answer thy bell's call.
May our efforts be not in vain
For knowledge is our gain.

Mr. J. E. Carter
Principal

Hail Alma Mater, we sing to thee,
Thy name within our hearts
Will treasured be.
As the days go by our thoughts
Will turn, and give thee the praise
For all we've learned.

ALMA MATER 1951

YOUTH:

Tears, smiles . . .

Conquests, disappointments . . .

When the world stands before you like an open door,
While the realms of life are still quite new and uncharted,

When possibilities are endless.

A time to be enjoyed;
A time to be remembered . . .

A is for the anguish these ads have caused us.
D is for the dark times which seem to be a “must”.
V is for the virtues we’ve tried to uphold.
E is for the energy that these pages mold.
R is for the road that we’ve trod.
T is for the trust we’ve placed in God.
I is for the interest in the job we’ve done.
S is for the success which we’ve won.
E is for the essential part you’ve played.
M is for the masterpiece that’s been made.
E is for encouragement you bestowed.
N is for the niceness that you showed.
T is for the thanks we extend to you—
SO trade with them that are tried and true.

Thanks Everyone!
